

UNNATI

Organisation for Development Education

Inviting Applications for

Jodhpur Program Lead / Chief of Programs – Rajasthan Operations (Open only for women candidates)

UNNATI – Organisation for Development Education was established in 1990 as a capacity development institution. The principles of people's participation, social inclusion, decentralized governance and social accountability guide the programs and activities of the institution. Since the year 2014, UNNATI has been actively engaged directly in the field which used to be carried out in partnership with local CSOs. Currently, our projects focus on promoting elementary education, ensuring public entitlements reach the most marginalized, improving agricultural practices, interface with gram panchayat institutions for participatory governance and enhancing community preparedness for disaster response.

Position: Jodhpur Program Lead / Chief of Programs - Rajasthan Operations.

The profile of the person:

- i. Shall have core values of social inclusion and participatory process.
- ii. Views role of NGO not as a project implementing instrument but as a circle of support for the vulnerable people - Dalits, Tribal, Minorities, Women and other gender minorities, Labourers, Displaced, etc.
- iii. The person has to be highly respectful to staff and community members without pretension and prejudice.
- iv. This position is only for woman candidate - early 40s.
- v. Have all necessary program management skills - participatory program planning, supportive supervision, develop and execute IT enabled MIS, promote partnership, analytical and reflective to draw lessons and learning and some understanding on finance and compliances and willingness to get engaged on new issues.
- vi. Understanding and commitment to the issues of western Rajasthan - having field level experience.
- vii. Represent the organisation in different platform, build linkages with movements, CSO networks, platforms, government.
- viii. Must have prior experience of leading a team.
- ix. Proficient in Hindi and English (speaking, reading and writing) Marwadi language is an added advantage.

Remuneration: Ranging from Rs. 80K to Rs. 1 Lakh (C to C).

Interested candidate(s) are requested to submit their application along with CV(s) and cover letter to hitendra@unnati.org.